

STUDENT AMBASSADOR Application

SOUTHWEST
TENNESSEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

What is a Southwest Student Ambassador?

The Southwest Ambassadors are a group of students who serve as official goodwill representatives of the College. The duties of an Ambassador are very broad, generally falling into three main categories: recruiting, hospitality and public relations.

Student Ambassadors must meet the following criteria:

- Be free of any disciplinary action by the College
- Be willing to work in all areas of the College
- Have at least a 2.8 grade point average
- Be familiar with Southwest and its activities
- Be supportive of and loyal to the College
- Be of good moral character and respectful to others
- Have an outgoing and energetic personality

Ambassadors will receive a Southwest Academic Service Scholarship that pays tuition (in-state only), based on full-time enrollment. A 75-hour per semester service obligation to the College is required of all students enrolled full time. For part-time students, the maximum amount awarded and the service obligations are prorated.
