

DRIVER SAFETY COURSES

Approved by the state of Tennessee and the National Safety Council

Alive at 25

Proven to help teach young adults to drive safely and responsibly

Alive at 25 is a highly interactive course that helps young adults under the age of 25 take greater responsibility for their driving by focusing on behavior, judgement and decision making. Available in English, this 4-hour classroom course is an excellent complement to driver education programs that traditionally focus on state laws and vehicle and road handling.

If you are interested in offering the Alive at 25 course at your high school, please contact Kathy Simpson at www.southwest.tn.edu.

Alive at 25 is also offered on Saturdays at Southwest Tennessee Community College, Macon Cove Campus, Fulton Building, Room 218.
