

SITUATIONAL MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

SOUTHWEST
TENNESSEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

FALL 2018 - NEW COURSE OFFERING!

SITUATIONAL MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP (SML)

Course Description:

This course covers the key topics in the field of leadership. Modules include: Situational Leadership; Maturity levels; Personality types; Commitment vs Competence, Strategic Planning Framework, and many other models developed by renowned leaders. Situational leadership involves a leader or manager adapting his/her style to fit the development level of the followers/employees he desires to influence.

TARGET AUDIENCE: Leaders, managers, supervisors, and emerging leaders.

CONTENT:

- Principles of Leadership
- Leadership and motivation functions within organizations
- Leadership Styles
- Identifying workplace personalities and behaviors

"Leaders must be close enough to relate to others, but far enough ahead to motivate them" – John C. Maxwell

DATES & TIMES

November 27 – December 18

7 sessions

Tuesdays & Thursdays

Mornings: 9:30 – 11:30 am

OR

Evenings: 5:30 – 7:30 pm

INSTRUCTOR

Linda F. Delaney
Founder/CEO

LFD Consulting, LLC

REGISTER TODAY